Dear member

We are writing to share news about an exciting evolution of our fund.

LGsuper will officially launch a fresh name and logo in February 2016. Because you are a valued member we wanted to explain the reasons for the change and assure you our service, your contributions and fees, and the management of your super investments will stay the same.

We started taking care of our Queensland members back in 1965. For 50 years we've delivered trusted superannuation, investment advice and insurance to current and former local government employees and their spouses. The sole purpose of our fund is to help members achieve a dignified and enjoyable retirement, something we began doing two decades before superannuation became compulsory in Australia.

Today, LGsuper looks after almost $9.5 billion for around 90,000 members and is consistently recognised as a strong, long-term performing fund that offers members one of the lowest administration fees in the industry.

We're proud of our Queensland heritage and the work our members do in building and supporting our communities.

So, why the change?

The presence of Local Government Super NSW and LG Electronics in the marketplace often causes confusion about our name.

By changing it, we now have a name that distinctly stands out and can be recognised by members, employers and the broader superannuation industry.

We are a community brought together by our shared connection to local government as employees, spouses, past employees and retirees. Our new name lets us evolve and grow together towards a positive future.

What will LGsuper be called?

LGsuper will become Local Government Investment Australia.

What else will change?

Nothing. We have freshened up our name and logo, but our service, your contributions and fees, and the way we manage your super investments will stay the same.

Contacting us?

There is no change to our phone numbers or our postal and street addresses, so you can call or visit us as you would normally.

From 8 February 2016 our website and email will redirect visitors to the addresses below:

New web address: www.lgiasuper.com.au
New email addresses: info@lgiasuper.com.au
membership@lgiasuper.com.au

What will this mean for you as a member?

You'll start to see the fresh look on our website, brochures and letters from February 2016.

LGIASuper will continue our tradition of being responsive and progressive in developing tools and services to help you and all our members. We will still deliver secure services you can trust, and industry-leading performance that is consistently reliable. Most importantly we will continue to look after you and your super as we have for the last 50 years.

We hope you love the refreshed LGIASuper brand as much as we do.
