Your partner can already join LGIASuper, and soon your son, daughter, parents and other relatives can too. You'll be able to help your children along a journey to a positive financial future. And you can invite your other family members to benefit from our high-performing, value-for-money Fund. We'll welcome them with the same care and understanding we've always shown.

Your friends and community are the extended family you choose, so it's natural to want the best for them. The next time the topic of super comes up, you'll be able to tell them they can soon share the same, market-leading Fund as you - because everyone's welcome!

we welcome your workmates & employer

Super and work go hand in hand. After all, your employer contributes at least 9.5% of your salary to it. Soon, your workmates can join LGIASuper, and employers outside local government will be able to use LGIASuper as their default super fund. We'll make their super simple, convenient and reliable.

invite & grow Everyone is welcome!

Inviting a family member to LGIASuper is super easy and takes just a few minutes!

Together, we've been growing LGIASuper since 1965. Our sole purpose originally was to protect the financial future of Queensland local government employees, but soon we'll welcome everyone to become a member! This is an exciting opportunity for growth that we can all share in.

We value you as a member, and you can help shape our future growth by inviting your friends and family to choose LGIASuper as their Fund. Just as you continue to enjoy our industry-leading performance, so too can your:

- Children who work and want a fund that's consistently reliable, trusted and uncomplicated.
- Parents who are looking for secure, value-for-money pension products as they approach or are enjoying their retirement.
- Workmates who want low fees, tailored financial advice and competitive insurance cover to protect their future.
- Friends who want the same intelligent investment strategies that consistently deliver successful outcomes.

Let's grow!

Growing our fund means sustaining low fees, strong performance and trusted and reliable products and services for all of us in the long term.

welcome your community circle

Inviting your friends to LGIAsuper is super easy and takes just a few minutes!

At LGIAsuper, looking after our members and their financial futures is at the heart of what we do. We understand that true happiness is about much more than just money.

Life is a journey with many different phases, like changing jobs, changing the place you call home, or starting and growing a family. As you move through these phases, staying connected to your community can help you feel safe and welcome.

Along with delivering investment, advice and insurance solutions, LGIAsuper is committed to making positive contributions to your community. We support local communities all over Queensland through our involvement with expos, council-run community events and fantastic programs like Try for 5!

We're proud to be able to continue this work that helps build awareness of our Fund, and helps people in your community achieve secure financial futures.

As we open our doors to your family and friends, you're welcome to invite people from your community to join us too. They can share in a future with growth.

welcome your employment circle

It's common for people to change jobs and as you know a new employer doesn't mean you have to choose a new super fund. Employees can choose to stay with their existing fund and at LGIAsuper, this happens all the time! In fact, more than half of our members no longer work for Queensland local government but they choose to stay with us when they change jobs or leave employment.

Soon, if you work outside Queensland local government, we can extend our great employer benefits to your colleagues. They'll be able to enjoy our simple administration process, low fees, value-for-money, and of course, our reliable performance. This will soon be available to all employers as we prepare to open our doors to everyone.

So wherever you work now or in the future, you're welcome to invite everyone to enjoy being a member of LGIAsuper.
